

ANDRES AMARILLA & MEREDITH KLEIN

RETURN TO OJAI:
MAY 23-31 & JUNE 5

ANDRES & MEREDITH

Although only 30 years old, Andres Amarilla has already been a fixture of the Buenos Aires milonga scene for 19 years. As a child and teenager, he studied with and performed in the dance companies of Gustavo Naveira, Juan Carlos Copes, and Rodolfo Dinzel. In the 1990s, he took part in the creation of "tango nuevo" as a participant in weekly closed rehearsals organized by Fabian Salas, and attended by Gustavo Naveira and Chicho Frumboli, among others. Andres has performed in Buenos Aires milongas over 60 times, including 20 performances with the legendary Geraldine Rojas. Andres combines traditional tango technique with "tango nuevo" steps to create a dance that is exceptionally dynamic and fluid. His background in traditional tango technique means that his teaching is applicable to dancers of all styles.

Meredith Klein began dancing tango in Massachusetts in 1999. Early in 2005, she decided to leave her career as a Development Consultant for nonprofits and move to Buenos Aires to devote herself to tango. For more information about Meredith, check out <http://meredithklein.com>.

Meredith & Andres have been working together since April 2005. Since beginning their first US tour in January 2006, they have taught in 14 cities including New York, San Francisco, Houston and Portland, Oregon. This is their second visit to the Ojai/SB area on this tour.
